DETAILED ACTION

1. This action is final. Claims 1, and 4-26 are pending with claims 19-26 being withdrawn as being drawn to a non-elected species of invention.

Election/Restrictions

2. The Examiner agrees that claims 1-18 read on figure 1.

Priority

3. Applicant is advised that the priority document has been received and the PTO-326 (Office Action Summary) is incorrect in the action mailed 1/3/07. The PTO-326 now correctly shows that the priority document has been received.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 1, 4-8, and 10-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Kummer et al. (5,315,193).

Kummer et al. Shows the claimed invention where an electric motor (3) drives a shaft (4) which couples the motor and gear unit, and therefore is a coupling unit per the claims; on the coupling unit/shaft there is mounted a fan (5), the coupling unit/shaft then proceeds to engage a gear arrangement which turns the power 90 degrees to output at a grinding disk (9), the casing has at least one inlet and one outlet (see Abstract) for the flow of a cooling medium (air); the shaft rotates and therefore elastically widens over a portion of its length.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. Claim 9 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kummer et al. (5,315,193) in view of Boulva (2003/0188520).

Kummer et al. shows the claimed invention as discussed supra.

But Kummer et al. does not show a clamping ring connecting the coupling between the fan and the shaft.

Boulva shows a fan (10) which has a set of fan blades (15) which provide cooling air (figure 6); the fan blades are attached by a coupling ring (15, 74) which securely attach the fan blades to the shaft.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the shaft/fan coupling arrangement of Kummer et al. such that it had a coupling ring as taught by Boulva for the purpose of allowing the fan to be easily and quickly removed for repair or replacement.

Response to Arguments

8. Applicant's arguments filed 5/3/07 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant argues that Kummer et al. (5,315,193) fails to show "A cooling unit arranged in the coupling unit". The Examiner disagrees. The coupling unit is broadly recited and it is the Examiner's position that the shaft couples the motor to the gear unit and the fan is mounted on the coupling unit.

Applicant also states "There is no disclosure in regard to a cooling unit that is to be arranged in a coupling unit provided between motor unit and gear unit, wherein the coupling unit drivingly connects the motor shaft and gear shaft." Here again, the shaft is coupling the motor and the gear unit and the fan is mounted on the shaft; therefore, the shaft is acting as a coupling unit.

Conclusion

9. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

10. The following are suggested formats for either a Certificate of Mailing or Certificate of Transmission under 37 CFR 1.8(a). The certification may be included with all correspondence concerning this application or proceeding to establish a date of mailing or transmission under 37 CFR 1.8(a). The Certificate should be signed by the individual actually depositing or transmitting the correspondence or by an individual who, upon information and belief, expects the correspondence to be mailed or transmitted in the normal course of business by another no later than the date indicated.
